

Curriculum: Human Sexuality

Definitions—

The following definitions apply in this policy:

1. "Curriculum materials review committee (committee)" means a committee formed at the District or school level, as determined by the Board of Education, that includes parents, health professionals, school health educators, and administrators, with at least as many parents as school employees. The membership of the committee shall be appointed and reviewed annually by August 1 of each year by the Board, shall meet on a regular basis as determined by the membership, shall select its own officers and shall be subject to the Utah Open and Public Meetings Act.
2. "Human sexuality instruction or instructional programs" means any course, unit, class, activity or presentation that provides instruction or information to students about sexual abstinence, human reproduction, reproductive anatomy, physiology, pregnancy, marriage, childbirth, parenthood, contraception, or HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases. While these topics are most likely discussed in such courses as health education, health occupations, human biology, physiology, parenting, adult roles, psychology, sociology, child development, and biology, this rule applies to any course or class in which these topics are the focus of discussion.
3. "Maturation education" means instruction and materials used to provide fifth or sixth grade students with age appropriate, accurate information regarding the physical and emotional changes associated with puberty, to assist in protecting students from abuse and to promote hygiene and good health practices.
4. "Medically accurate" means verified or supported by a body of research conducted in compliance with scientific methods and published in journals that have received peer review, where appropriate, and recognized as accurate and objective by professional organizations and agencies with expertise in the relevant field, such as the American Medical Association.

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-1 (August 8, 2011)

Parental Permission Form Required for Participation—

Students may not participate in any human sexuality instruction or instructional program unless, prior to the student's participation, the school has on file for that student a completed parental notification form relating to that specific instruction or program which indicates that the student's parent or guardian authorizes the student to participate. Completed permission forms shall be maintained in the student's educational records.

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-1H (August 8, 2011)

Health and Human Sexuality Guidelines—

All health and human sexuality education shall stress the importance of abstinence from all sexual activity before marriage and fidelity after marriage as methods of preventing sexually transmitted diseases. The curriculum and education shall also stress personal skills that encourage individual choice of abstinence and fidelity in marriage.

At no time may instruction be provided, including responses to spontaneous questions raised by students, regarding any means or methods that facilitate or encourage the violation of any state or federal criminal law by a minor or an adult.

Nothing in this policy precludes an educator from responding to a spontaneous question provided that the response is consistent with this policy.

Utah Code Ann. § 53A-13-101(1)(b) (2004)

The following may not be taught in District schools:

1. the intricacies of intercourse, sexual stimulation, or erotic behavior;
2. the advocacy of homosexuality;
3. the advocacy or encouragement of the use of contraceptives methods or devices; or
4. the advocacy of sexual activity outside of marriage

Instructional Staff Training and Inservice

District staff who have responsibility for some aspect of human sexuality instruction in the District may include administrators, teachers, counselors, teacher's assistants, or coaches, but are not necessarily limited to those categories.

In their first year of service or assignment, all newly hired or newly assigned District staff who have responsibility for any aspect of human sexuality instruction in the District will attend a State-sponsored inservice outlining the human sexuality curriculum and the criteria for human sexuality instruction in any courses offered in the public education system.

All District staff who have any responsibility for any aspect of human sexuality instruction in the District will attend District training outlining the human sexuality curriculum and the criteria for human sexuality instruction in any courses offered in the public education system at least once every three (3) years.

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-5A, B (August 8, 2011)

Human Sexuality Curriculum Materials Review Committee

The Board of Education shall appoint a District Human Sexuality Curriculum Materials Review Committee. This committee shall be composed of parents, health professionals, school health educators, and administrators, with at least as many parent members as school employee members. The Board shall review the membership of the committee by August 1 of each year, making new appointments as necessary or appropriate.

The District Human Sexuality Curriculum Materials Review Committee shall meet on a regular basis as determined by the members of the committee, shall establish procedures for operation, and shall designate a chair.

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-5C (August 8, 2011)

Review of Guest Presentations Relating to Human Sexuality

Before any guest speaker or guest presenter may present any information in any District course relating to human sexuality instruction, the speaker and presenter and the materials to be presented must have been approved by the District Human Sexuality Curriculum Materials Review Committee.

The committee shall not authorize the use of any human sexuality instructional program which has not been previously approved for use in the District as set forth below regarding curriculum approval.

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-5C (August 8, 2011)

Adoption of District Human Sexuality Instructional Materials

[Option A] The Board of Education hereby adopts for use in the schools of the District the human sexuality instructional materials recommended by the Utah State Office of Education. All human sexuality instruction in the District shall make use of those instructional materials.

Utah Code Ann. § 53A-13-101(1)(c) (2004)

Utah Admin. Rules R277-474-4C (August 8, 2011)

[Option B] The Board of Education shall determine what human sexuality instructional materials will be used in the District. The Board shall request that the District Human Sexuality Curriculum Materials Review Committee provide recommendations regarding the human sexuality instructional materials to be used in the District. Such recommended materials must be medically accurate and must be consistent with the Health and Human Sexuality Guidelines set forth above. Following recommendations from the Review Committee, the Board shall consider whether to adopt recommended materials at a public meeting which includes a public hearing on the issue. The proposed materials shall have been made available for review by residents of the District a reasonable time in advance of the meeting. If a majority of the Board members present vote to adopt the recommended materials, then the materials may be used in the District.

The District will develop a logging and tracking system of parental and community complaints and comments resulting from student participation in human sexuality instruction, to include the disposition of the complaints, and provide that information to the USOE upon request.

Following adoption of human sexuality instruction materials which have not previously been approved by the State Instructional Materials Commission, the Board shall report such adoption to the State Office of Education. That report shall provide a copy of the materials, documentation of the adoption of the materials at the Board meeting, documentation that the materials are medically accurate, documentation of the committee recommendations, and the Board's rationale for adopting the materials.

The Board of Education shall annually review the decision to adopt the human sexuality instructional materials used in the District, and shall consider whether to continue use of those materials.

Monitoring of Human Sexuality Instruction

Each school in the District shall log and track all parental or community complaints and comments resulting from student participation in human sexuality instruction in the school, including disposition of any complaints made. This information shall be provided to District administration on a monthly basis during the school year.

District administration shall compile and maintain records of parental or community complaints and comments resulting from student participation in human sexuality instruction in the District, including disposition of complaints, and shall provide that information to the Utah State Office of Education upon request.
