Declaration

Whereas, it is essential that every student in Utah has the opportunity to receive a high-quality education in Utah's public schools;

Whereas, public schools embrace every child, nurturing a passion for learning, sparking curiosity, and unlocking the potential of our children year after year;

Whereas, a robust and effective public-school system is vital to the success of our children and the economic prosperity of our state;

Whereas, local school boards, legislators, and the Utah State Board of Education must collaborate to uphold high academic standards ensuring that all Utah students develop into productive and hardworking individuals;

Whereas, Utah's local school boards are crucial in fostering strong connections between schools and lawmakers, enhancing and advancing Utah's public education system;

Whereas, elected officials are instrumental in the success and achievements of Utah's public schools, and we support involvement and connection with students;

Whereas, this week provides an opportunity to strengthen relationships between state legislators, state board members, local educators, and students, and to expand student's understanding of working government;

Whereas, the state of Utah recognizes and appreciates the dedication and hard work of those professionals committed to improving Utah's public schools;

Now, therefore, I, Spencer J. Cox, governor of the state of Utah, do hereby declare the week of Sept. 23-27, 2024, as

Utah Lawmakers in the Classroom Week
